About us

We are a small to mid-sized law firm that has been operating on the North Shore for over 30 years. We have a diverse firm culture, building a strong use of technology and we pride ourselves on our fresh office design which fosters collaboration supported by our culture of open communication across all levels of the business. This is our point of difference and what will keep us competitive as we head into 2020.

Our feedback from new staff is that everyone in the team are always happy to stop what they're doing to help them out. Our Directors love to see people grow and develop so you will not be short of opportunities to give and receive mentoring. Due to our smaller size, we are a flexible bunch that can step out of what we're doing to look at the big picture.
