YOUR LAWYERS

Senior Role - Family Disputes - Hamilton

Norris Ward McKinnon is a well-established specialist firm located in the Hamilton CBD. We have an opportunity for an experienced senior person to join our family disputes team.

The role

You will be working closely with partners and other team members, who are highly experienced family lawyers actively involved in the legal and business community. As a senior team member you will be involved in a range of family matters including parenting, guardianship, family violence and protection orders, adoption, paternity, spousal maintenance, dissolution of marriage/civil union, relationship property agreements and disputes, contracting out agreements and protection of personal and property rights. You will also be encouraged to help mentor and supervise junior lawyers in the team, to reach their full potential, and give you a rewarding coaching aspect to this role.

You will be part of a cohesive, collaborative team where everyone's input is valued, where we value your home and work commitments and celebrate success. Tech savvy, you will be working with advanced legal technology in modern open plan offices.

As a successful applicant you will have:

- minimum 5+ years' experience working in a family law practice in New Zealand;
- a demonstrable commitment to client service;
- business development skills and an affinity for networking;

- a collaborative approach where you enjoy working in a fast paced team environment;
- an attitude of always striving for excellence in everything that you do;
- a growth mind-set, where you show a passion for continuous improvement in your practice of the law and the way in which you deliver client service; and
- excellent written and verbal communication skills, particularly the ability to explain legal concepts in plain English.

If you believe our firm and this opportunity is the right fit for you, contact our Practice Manager, Carmen Simmonds by emailing your full CV and cover letter, with the subject line 'Family Disputes Solicitor' to: lawyers@nwm.co.nz
