Family Law Section Bulletin 407 - 26 February 2020

Vacancy - Atticus Chambers - Christchurch

We are a specialist Family Law Chambers in Christchurch.

We represent parents and children on child law issues and parties on financial issues arising at separation. We also receive briefs to conduct appellate work. We pride ourselves on providing strong, independent advocacy for our clients and enjoying the practice of law. We accept a limited number of legal aid briefs.

We appear in the Family, Youth, Rangatahi and District and High Courts and the Court of Appeal.

Our ideal new chambers' member is someone who shares our interest in family law and youth justice jurisprudence and advocacy.

If you would like to join us please contact us by 6 March 2020: Siobhan McNulty; smcnulty@atticuschambers.com; Lana Paul; lane@atticuschambers.com; or Stephen van Bohemen svanbohemmen@atticuschambers.com for an initial discussion or call any of us at 03 365 9299. All approaches will be treated in confidence.
