

Free OT webinar - “Transitioning from care or custody – to adulthood” - Wednesday
9 September - 9.30am to 11.00am

We are pleased to be able to deliver our first OT webinar on “Transitioning from care or custody – to adulthood” which will take place on Wednesday 9 September from 9.30am to 11.00am. The webinar will be presented by Annalise Sharp, Associate Service Manager, Transition Support Service, Oranga Tamariki and is free of charge.

Annalise has worked for Oranga Tamariki for 13 years, and is based in Auckland. Annalise holds a Master of Social Work (Professional) and is experienced across a range of services for rangatahi within Oranga Tamariki, including: Youth Justice, Community placements and Transition to Adulthood services. Annalise will cover the legislative requirements for transition support, how these provisions underpin the Transition Support Service and entitlement offerings, eligibility to receive support and what the service means for young people transitioning from care or custody.

Those who wish to attend must register in the link below. The link will also include instructions on how to download zoom on to your device and join a zoom meeting if you are not familiar with that process.

Please register here.

On 8 September, we will send those who have registered a link to join the webinar. Following the webinar, we will also send attendees a CPD verification of attendance for their records.

We do hope you will be able to join us for this webinar.
