

Our stories – Story six – Benefits of supervision for family lawyers

In our sixth “our stories” video, Rachael Dewar, an experienced Wellington family lawyer and Bev Hosking, a professional supervisor talk about what is professional supervision and its benefits for family lawyers. Just a reminder that the lawyers who appear in these videos have agreed to be filmed and the video made available to members of the FLS, via your lawyer ID and password. We ask that you respect their privacy by not sharing these videos with others. Click here to view.

Court hours - Christmas and New Year period

The Ministry of Justice has supplied the following information in respect of court hours over the Christmas and New Year period. This information will also be in the summer edition of Family Advocate which will be published on 9 December.

Oranga Tamariki webinar series

We are aiming to deliver the two final webinars in this series in February and March 2021. These will cover the topics of:

- Family Group Conferences and the role of hapu and iwi in FGCs
- Special guardianship and permanency

We will update members once dates and times have been finalised and send you the link to register your attendance.

Auckland escalation list

The Auckland Family Court has updated its contacts and escalation list and included email addresses for the family violence programmes. Click here to view the latest list.

Caroline Hickman
FLS Chair