Dealing with alcohol abuse in clients – seminar 23 November

Taranaki FLS regional representative, Lynda Manning has organised a seminar on dealing with alcohol abuse in clients.

The seminar will be held at Till Henderson in New Plymouth on Thursday 23 November from 4.30pm to 6.00pm.

The seminar will be presented by Raewyn Crowe, a local registered alcohol and drug practitioner. Raewyn works with substance abuse and substance dependent clients providing assessments, reports and treatment. She is especially involved in the area of child care and protection work.

Attendees will be able to claim 1.5 CPD hours.

Attendance at the seminar is free of charge. Refreshments and cheese and crackers will be provided.
