Family Law Section Bulletin - Issue 182, 5 December 2017

A reminder that Professor Kathryn Hollingsworth of Newcastle University (UK) will be delivering a seminar on Monday 11 December in Auckland on the Children's Rights Judgments Project.

When: Monday 11 December – 4.00 to 6.00pm

Where: NZLS, Auckland Branch, L12 WHK Tower, 51 Shortland Street, Auckland

RSVP: family@lawsociety.org.nz by 7 December for catering purposes

The project involved the rewriting of 28 existing legal cases from a range of jurisdictions and legal contexts (published this year as an edited collection and launched at the UK Supreme Court in October). Each of the rewritten cases explored what the judgment would look like if written from a children's rights perspective. This seminar will set out some of the lessons from the project, focusing particularly on child-friendly judgments. Professor Hollingsworth would very much like to hear and to learn from the perspectives, experiences and views of members of the New Zealand judicial and legal practitioner communities.
